

NOTICE (From AIU)

Attention Dear Students!!!!

‘University News’ is Now Open for You Too!

Association of Indian Universities (AIU) is a vibrant and dynamic inter-university organization in India catering to the higher education system of the country in many areas. Apart from being a representative body of universities, it is a research-based policy advisory institute to the Government of India. Most of our activities are directed towards the benefit to those who matter to us the most- Our students from universities and colleges.

We connect to the students of Indian universities and colleges through inter university events in the areas of sports, cultural programmes, Anveshan etc at national and international level. We provide first hand authentic information about higher education across the world through our Student Information Services Wing. AIU is the body, designated by the Government of India for According academic equivalence to the degrees and examinations of the Indian and foreign universities.

We’re delighted to inform you that we are opening up our Weekly Journal ‘University News’ for you, the students of universities and colleges to communicate your views on higher education in the form of articles, view points, etc. So far, it was confined to senior academics and administrators only. By publishing your articles in the University News, you will get a forum to reach out to the Ministry and other apex agencies of higher education, apart from creating a network of your own with other students. This is over and above the academic credit obtained by publishing which indeed will be yours!

Nevertheless, you have to ensure that your articles meet the prescribed criteria of the University News to get approval for publication from the Editorial Committee.

So, come on, don’t wait for your classmates to intimate, be proactive – introduce yourself and send your articles. Be the one to reach out to the world of academics. You’ll find it incredible!

Those who want to contribute their articles, write ups, view points etc. in the area of higher education to get it published in Weekly Journal ‘University News’ can send it to articleaiu@gmail.com.
